

SPECIAL SCREENING

intelligent lives

Shattering expectations. Opening minds.

Thursday, June 7

6 pm – 9:30 pm

UMass Boston

University Hall 1100

100 Morrissey Boulevard

Boston, Massachusetts

INTELLIGENT LIVES is the newest documentary from award-winning filmmaker Dan Habib, director of Including Samuel and Who Cares About Kelsey? This special free screening will include a discussion with Habib and stars from the film.

SPACE IS LIMITED, REGISTER TODAY!

INTELLIGENT LIVES stars three pioneering young American adults with intellectual disabilities – Micah, Naieer, and Naomie – who challenge perceptions of intelligence as they navigate high school, college, and the workforce. Academy Award-winning actor and narrator Chris Cooper puts the lives of these central characters in context through the emotional personal story of his son Jesse, as the film unpacks the shameful and ongoing track record of intelligence testing in the U.S.

INTELLIGENT LIVES explores how narrow views of intelligence have led to the segregation of people with intellectual disabilities. The movie examines how technology, peers, and other supports can enable people with intellectual disabilities to engage in competitive employment, inclusive education, and all aspects of community life.

Join us for an evening that will include:

- 6–7:00pm: Pre-screening reception with light snacks, conversation, and information on current research and practice from Think College, ThinkWork!, and other projects of the Institute for Community Inclusion at UMass Boston.
- 7–9:15pm: Screening of the full film (with open captions), with a post-viewing panel discussion and audience Q & A, featuring the filmmaker and stars.

For more information and to register for this free event: intelligentlives.eventbrite.com

CELEBRATING
50 YEARS

This film screening is sponsored by Think College, a national initiative working toward full inclusion of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities in higher education. Think College is based at the Institute for Community Inclusion at the University of Massachusetts Boston.